Think N Write- Why does Orwell think there will be a 'peace that is no peace' a state which was at once unconquerable and in a permanent state of 'cold war' with its neighbors....If, as seems to be the case, it [the atomic bomb] is a rare and costly object ...it is likelier to put an end to large-scale wars at the cost of prolonging indefinitely a 'peace that is no peace'. George Orwell
